

Faith in Education Social Media Toolkit

About:

As a faith leader, you have the power and influence to communicate directly with children and families who are struggling with and concerned about what a future beyond high school can look like. Social media is just one way to spread the message of educational empowerment. Feel free to use the suggested social media posts and graphics to help spread the word.

Universal FAFSA/Advocacy

1. The Benefits of Universal FAFSA are indisputable:
 - It would streamline financial aid access for students,
 - Increase college enrollment rates,
 - And ensure equal opportunities for all.

@GovHochul, let's make it a reality once and for all to support our students and increase college access!

FAFSA Support for Students

1. Millions in financial aid go unclaimed each year because students don't complete #FAFSA. Let's change that! With billions in Pell Grants and scholarships available, every student should seize the opportunity for a more affordable college education. Visit fpwa.org/faithineducation for more resources on how to apply.
2. FAFSA can break down barriers to higher education & foster a brighter future for all by unlocking the full spectrum of financial aid resources. Don't miss out on potential grants & scholarships that could support your college journey. Check out fpwa.org/faithineducation for more info/resources on how to apply.
3. FAFSA is your gateway to accessing crucial financial support for college. By completing this application, you pave the way for a brighter educational future. Don't delay – submit your FAFSA to unlock financial aid opportunities! Find out more at fpwa.org/faithineducation
4. Did you know? Completing FAFSA unlocks access to federal grants, work-study funds, and loans, and helps students afford higher education. It's free to apply and crucial for accessing financial aid opportunities! Learn more and apply now at fpwa.org/faithineducation
